NO. 31

J. NEWTON CRAIG.

After a year's confinement to his bed, helpless and almost blind, Mr. J. N. Craig passed peacefully away at 9 o'clock last night. His daughter, Mrs. J. E. Bruce, Miss Lena Bruce and Dr. W. N. Craig, his niece and nephew, have been unremitting in their attentions to him and have with the assistance of their friends and families nursed him faithfully during all the months of his confinement.

Mr. Craig was born in the first house East of the Presbyterian church, Stanford, and has always made his birthplace his home. His parents were William Craig and Elizabeth Mills and he was born Dec. 22, 1813, making him now in his 86th year. On the 17th day of June, 1836, he was married to Miss Nancy Hughes and they lived together till May 16, 1861, 25 years; when her labors ended and she went to her reward. Seven children were born to them, three of whom are living: Wm. Craig, Mrs. J. E. Bruce and Mrs. Julia Dunn.

Shortly after his marriage he and his wife joined the Presbyterian church. In a few months he was elected deacon and soon an elder, which office he filled for nearly 60 years. He was chairman of the board of trustees of Stanford Academy for 30 years. He was a merchant the greater part of his life and in his day sold lots of goods. Originally a whig, he joined the democrats when that political organization became defunct and has since voted the straight ticket. He was several times mayor of the town and in many ways was a useful man to the community.

A long and blameless life is ended and the tired spirit rests in peace.

Burial will occur this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of Dr. Craig, where deceased had made his home for several years. At the cemetery Rev. S. M. Rankin will hold a short service and then the remains will be laid beside the wife, who went before 15 years or more ago.

Hudson Bros., of Louisville, bought in Adair, 15 aged mules at $65 to $80. Robert Sims bought in the Southern end a lot of butcher cattle at 3 to 4¢.

For sale, 90 acres of good land, either in one or two parcels. Address box 196.

The Kansas City Driving Club has raised $30,000 with which to equip a truck.

A law in Colorado makes docking horses a crime punishable by both fine and imprisonment.

Henry Robinson shot Walter Smith to death at Evansville, Ind., during a fight over the possession of a hoe.

Harry A. J. Agnew, one of the best known trainers of trotting horses on the Pacific coast, is dead in California.

Ida C., by Jack Dawson, is the first 2½ performer of the year, having won a race in 2:14 at Baltimore the other day.

At Latonia Wednesday J. B. Gentry's Proseman ran second and Ben Bright's John Yerkes first in their respective races.

Matt Cohen, who was here this week, tells us that Richmond will have a fair and will give a big purse—probably $1,000 for saddle stallions.

The average cost of grain and pasture for a cow is estimated at $35 a year. If she yields 150 pounds of butter, worth 20¢ and a calf worth $5 she is kept at a loss.

Col. L. G. Moore has purchased John T. Cassell's fine farm of 450 acres, near Harrodsburg, for $60,000 cash. This is the largest land sale that has occurred in Mercer county for a decade.

The Richmond Climax reports that J. W. and L. A. Ballard bought 80 steers from Mat Gibson at 4.10 and 11 heifers from John D. Harris at 4 cents. Sales of a car load of hogs at 3.65 and 20 heifers for July delivery at 4.15 are also reported.

The Old Dominion, the splendid steamer plying between Richmond, Va., and New York, went on the rocks in James river, just below Richmond and is badly damaged. The ship has about 12 feet of water in her hold.

MT. VERNON.

The Eight Gables hotel, of Livingston is the busiest one of the mountains. The late spring and wet weather has caused delay in working the corn crop and farmers are blue.

A Methodist meeting is in progress here at the court house, conducted by Revs. Mills and Ison.

The 4th of July picnic will be held at Adams' grove and all are looking forward to a pleasant time. There will be speeches by eloquent orators and other features of interest. Gaines Adams will make it a success.

The race for representative promises to be a lively one. Several strong republicans have announced themselves, Burgess Ietharum, the county chairman, being most prominent. Who ever gets the nomination is liable to win, as Rockcastle and Laurel give republican majorities.

Mr. R. S. Martin and Mrs. E. E. Protheroe, of Brudhead, are visiting relatives in Lynchburg, Va., the early home of Mr. Martin. Mrs. Dr. A. G. Lovell and daughter visited Mrs. Beaman at Berea last week. Mrs. Mat Ballard, of Livingston, is quite ill. Mr. G. B. Cook and Miss Lida are visiting at Jellico.

The jug trade here received a blow when Judge Evans gave his decision in regard to local option counties. The more difficult it is to obtain the deadly beverage, the less its admirers will drink. If they have to go to other towns and bring it back in baskets, we think the trade will soon decline.

The song entitled "In The Sunny South, an L. & N. Romance," by Mrs. Rosalind Nesbitt, is in the hands of the publishers and bids fair to be very popular. The chorus will reach the heart of every employee of the road and many others whose dearest interest are centered there. It reads:

"There is music in all seasons,
In meadow, glade and glen,
But the sweetest is the whistle
Of the dear old L. & N."

Be sure to write for a copy at once.

Mrs. Jeff Pennington is very ill. Mrs. Kate Tharp is the guest of Mrs. Albright. Holbert McClure is here from Paris. Mrs. John Brown and son, Conn, are expected to arrive from Texas this week. Mrs. Cloo Brown has been quite ill with tonsillitis. Little Tanna Thompson, has returned from the Louisville school for the blind. Edgar Albright is at home for vacation. Miss Ida May Adams returned from Danville, where she graduated at Caldwell College last week. Miss Lena Newcomb is improving her town property. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Williams will move to Stanford in the near future.

The delegation that attended the W. C. T. U. convention at Berea, report a pleasant trip. Mrs. Hanson, the active president of the local union, was not in her efforts for the welfare of the delegates. President and Mrs. Frost, of the College, Prof. and Mrs. Dodge, Prof. Fairchild and in fact the whole faculty of that famous school, did all in their power to make pleasant the sojourn of the ladies of the 8th Kentucky district, in their lovely little village. We were impressed with the orderly manner in which the school is conducted. We heard it rumored that a move will be made to conduct the school for colored pupils separately in the near future. This is a move in the right direction and with the $400,000 endowment fund it should be easily managed. This school was begun in 1853 by John B. Fee, who gave a short address at the W. C. T. U. convention. Beside the other speakers, who have already been mentioned, Mrs. Manning, of Manchester, president of the 11th district, lent her gracious presence to the occasion.

John Glenn, for the murder of a man with a base ball bat at Louisville, goes clear because there is a statute saying that the murdered must die in six months from the injury to constitute murder, and this man died after six months and two days.

The amount taken in at the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight was $85,270. Of this Fitzsimmons got $35,581 and Jeffries $27,054. The balance went to the club.

The 12th annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua, will be held at Lexington June 27 to July 7, inclusive.

WILLIAM GOOCH.

Died at his home near Stanford, Ky.

May 31, of a complication of diseases, Mr. William Gooch, one of Lincoln county's wealthiest and most influential citizens. Mr. Gooch was an upright and worthy citizen given to many charitable deeds, a devoted husband and affectionate father. In the death of this good man, we recognize a public calamity, he being a man of sterling character and great energy. Through the medium of his business, he was a benefactor to a large community which looked to him for direction and employment. He was a public spirited man and fostered carefully every interest which was calculated to benefit his community. His was a high type of citizenship and his walk before his fellowman was upright. It was in his home (where he was so dearly loved) that his character shone out the brightest, being always mindful of his relation as a husband and father, especially kind and attentive to his beloved wife and little children. How beautiful it was to see with what loving devotion his wife and children cared for him in the last month of his illness, doing all that loving hearts and willing hands could do to alleviate his terrible suffering. A few days before his death he celebrated his 66th birthday, having with him his wife, 12 children and 25 grand-children, two brothers, a sister, several nephews and a few special friends. It being his wish that all of these should be with him on this occasion. It was truly touching to see how solicitous he was for their comfort and how bravely and unselfishly he tried to conceal his own suffering. To his beloved family his loss is irreparable. But the consolation of the blessed Gospel is for these sorrowing loved ones. They are assured that their loss is his gain, and they have the sweet thought to sustain and cheer them that in the brighter world to which he has gone, there will be a gathering of oroken households and a reunion of sundered ties under such conditions as will yield infinitely higher and sweeter enjoyment than was possible amid the scenes of the world's confusion. For we rejoice in the belief that his last end was peace and that he now wears upon his brow the crown of glory.

Soldier and Sailor Intelligence.

The anniversary of the battle of San Jacinto is to be celebrated at the Greater American exposition in Omaha, July 3.

It is reported at Manila that the Filipino Gen. Luna and his Aide-de-Camp, Lieut. Ramon, have been assassinated at Aguinaldo's headquarters.

There has been some pretty severe fighting again at Manila and for a while the Americans got the worst of it. Their loss was 60 and the Filipinos' 400.

More recruits wanted for the Philippines. The recruiting officer in Lexington has just received instructions from the war department to enlist a number of white men for infantry, cavalry and artillery service in the Philippines. These men will be sent to San Francisco at once to connect with steamship sailing the latter part of this month. Now is the chance for you to make a trip around the world. This opportunity will only last a few days and men wanting to join should apply at the recruiting offices in Lexington, Ky., or in Ashland, or in Somerset, at once.

Some Kansas wild man thinks that by grafting the strawberry and milkweed plants we can have strawberries and cream all natural. They combine it with sugar cane and there you are.

NO RIGHT TO GUINNESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and penner will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wreathed complexion. Electric lotion is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store.

The city council at Georgetown has fixed the tax rate at 80¢.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JUNE 16, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

WE have received several letters from the good citizens of Clay county urging us to use our influence with Gov. Bradley to declare martial law there. As that could only be done upon the petition of the officers after declaring that they are unable to preserve the peace, that step towards bringing order out of chaos can not be considered. The officers in charge in that county are apparently law breakers themselves and but for their offices, which enable them to ride rough shod over their enemies, might be sent to the penitentiary themselves. That Sheriff White is responsible for the assassination of Tom Baker, if he is not guilty of the cowardly deed himself, seems to be unquestioned. The shot was fired from his house and there is every indication that he was privy to the worst of murders. So long as such a man is sheriff, backed by the other officers of the county, and so long as Judge Eversole allows himself to be bulldozed and run away from his duty, assassination and other murders will run riot while the weak and law-abiding suffer the consequences. Two courses seem to be open to the latter. One is to rise in their might, if they are mighty, and form an army for the extermination of the law-breakers or to have the county abolished by the next Legislature. Something must be done and done quickly. A human life is not regarded with as much consideration as a hog's by the cowardly ambushers of Clay county and people are fleeing from home and possessions not knowing when an assassin's bullet may pierce their hearts. The soldiers have shown that they can not even protect a prisoner from assassination and it therefore seems useless to put the State to the expense of sending troops there. Creatures who will kill a horse to prevent a messenger from taking news of their misdeeds to the outside world and intimidate the Courier Journal correspondent for telling the truth will do any thing and the only way to deal with such savages is to kill them like cattle, which we hope a law and order club will do, if it can not bring the floods to terms in any other way. The average mind is hardly able to grasp the terrible chaotic condition the county of Clay is in or to realize the state of anarchy and disorder that exists there. It is almost past comprehension that such things should exist in a civilized country at the end of the 1900 century and so long as they are allowed to exist so long will Kentucky be avoided by investors and immigrants.

THE democratic State executive committee met at Lexington and adjusted the differences between Chairman Johnston and Committeeman Vreeland, regarding the preparations for the State convention to be held in Louisville on the 21. All badges, tickets of admission and printed matter prepared by Vreeland will be turned over to Chairman Johnston for distribution by next Friday, and the convention will be held in Music Hall. This is somewhat of a turn down for Johnston, who repudiated the acts of Vreeland and hired MacCauley's theatre instead. He has that house on his hands now and unless he can make terms with the proprietors, will have to pony up much good, hard cash. He also now doubtless realizes that a chairman is not always the whole shooting match.

THE Guffy family are swinging on to the public beat with a good deal of energy. The old man is drawing $5,000 for being appellate judge. One son is deputy surveyor of the Louisville port at $2,500 a year, another is deputy sergeant of the court of appeals at $1,800, and the judge has just appointed his daughter his official stenographer who gets $350. The total drawn by them annually is $9,330, a pretty good sum for a very ordinary family.

JUDGE W. L. BROWN, of London, seems to be playing in bad luck. For defending E. K. Wilson he is not only threatened with personal violence, but denied the endorsement of his county by his republican friends, who go out of their way to compliment Hon. W. R. Hamsey for attorney general, when he is not a candidate, simply because of his vigorous prosecution of Wilson. Politics cuts curious capers in the mountains as well as elsewhere.

It is said that Admiral Dewey has declined to receive the proposed donation of a home, just like a sensible man should. He is no mendicant and there were any possible chance that the wolf should ever knock at his door, there might be some excuse for the effort of a certain class of people to advertise itself.

The appellate court affirmed the decision of the Franklin court awarding $12,000 damages to Miss Christine McGowan against the L. & N. She was shot by a drunken Negro on board a train in 1891. This is the case that aroused public sentiment to the point that caused the enactment of the separate coach bill.

THE Court of Appeals, Judge Duffy dissenting, holds that the convict parole law is constitutional and that the sinking fund commissioners alone can exercise it. It also holds that the governor can be overruled by a majority of the board of commissioners. The action was brought by the present commissioners of the penitentiary against Warden Lillard to compel him to recognize their parole of John Dugan, of Bell county, who is serving a 21-year sentence for the murder of John C. Colson. Gov. Brown held that the law was unconstitutional and everybody knows that he knows more law than the court of appeals ever will. The decision gives murderers and other desperate criminals further chance to thwart the justice that has been meted to them.

EVERY man who wants Goebel to be governor, should let nothing prevent him from attending the convention tomorrow. It will be called at 2 p. m. sharp and all democrats who promise to support the nominee are entitled to vote. Our man may have none of the so-called politicians to urge his cause, but that is a small matter compared to numbers. We have the men if they will come out and, by the eternal, if they do we will have the instructions. Don't fail to be here and be sure to be on time. Senator Goebel has made a good fight and the people are going to see that he has his reward. If you are for him be on hand tomorrow and prove it by falling into his line.

THE Whallen crowd called the Louisville primary, but seeing that it was beaten by its own skin game, the committee called the election off and nominated a ticket to its liking. The administration ticket, which was chosen by from 8,000 to 10,000 majority, will continue in the field and as usual, there is a hades to pay in Louisville. The knock out of the Buckingham boss gives satisfaction to decent people generally, while it also shows that Whallen will not be able to make the city instruct against Goebel, whose chances brighten hourly.

A HARDIN man said he has from the beginning seen that his favorite had no chance in this county and advocated the policy of making peace with the other men. Had that instead of a bluff policy, been adopted, and had Harding not been imported to bullrag his superiors, Hardin might have gotten a smell in the county. Overtures of peace and combinations are being made in these latter days, when the handwriting is so plainly on the wall, but it is too late. The die is cast. The Goebel men have won.

HON. RICHARD P. BLAND, honest old "Silver Dick," has gone from the tempestuous scenes of life, let us hope to a better world. He died at his home at Lebanon, Mo., yesterday morning at 4:30 after a protracted illness. He served a number of terms in Congress and in 1896 had a large following for the democratic nomination for president.

HENDERSON, of Iowa, who will be the next speaker of the National House, is a Scotchman by birth, and can go no higher politically, unless the office of Senator be higher. Foreign born persons are not eligible to the presidency.

THE attempt of the Louisville Post, which is the organ of the classes, to masquerade as a representative of the masses, is enough to make a monkey cackhinate.

It is all over but the shouting. Come in Saturday, Goebel men, come in Stone men and help us do it. We've got 'em dead sure.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Gov. Bradley has accepted Gov. Sayers' invitation to attend an anti-trust convention.

The State populist convention to name a full ticket has been called to meet at Frankfort, July 27.

The Pennsylvania democratic convention cheered Bryan's name, but refused to specifically endorse the Chicago platform.

Judge J. Quincey Ward, of Bourbon county, is recovering from his long and serious illness, and is able to walk about the house.

Appellate Judge Guffy has appointed his daughter to be his official stenographer and law clerk, discharging her predecessor, a democrat, without notice.

Senator Goebel has an excellent chance to capture the entire 20 votes of the Lexington and Fayette county delegation to the State convention. Bully for him. He's going to get there.

H. O. Havemeyer, president of the sugar trust says that the tariff is the mother of all trusts and that a rate of 10 per cent. ad valorem would offer sufficient protection for any industry.

A number of respectable gentlemen publish affidavits in the Owensboro Messenger that in his Roseville speech, Gen. Hardin used this intemperate language: "I will advise you all as Democrats, if I am defeated and not made your leader to carry your banner in November, then my advice to you is for you to repudiate the Chicago platform and to defeat Blackburn and Bryan."

Suits aggregating $24,000 have been filed against the L. & N. railroad at Franklin by County Attorney Finn and Commonwealth's Attorney Byers. The charge is discrimination in rates against Franklin coal dealers.

Judge Parker, of Lexington, refused Maj. Thomas J. Carson a new trial in the suit of E. W. Singleton against him for $10,000 in which the latter got $6,000. It will be remembered that Carson shot Singleton, who is a Lincoln county man, over a trifling affair.

The cyclone which swept over Wisconsin Monday night was one of the most destructive ever known in the West. The town of New Richmond was almost wiped out of existence and over half of the houses there were destroyed. The loss of life is estimated all the way from 100 to 400, scores of the victims being burned to death. Many other points in the State suffered more or less seriously. Tuesday night the village of Herman, in Washington county, Neb., was almost swept away by a cyclone, and reports say that a hundred persons perished there, while almost every house in the place was blown down.

LANCASTER.

A terrible hail storm passed over the Cartersville section and damaged some oats and corn crops.

A number of our people will attend the contest in your city on Friday night among them Miss Ellene Hlatt, one of the contestants, Mr. John M. Farra, her usher and Mr. F. Sautley Hughes, usher for Miss Tevis Carpenter. Mrs. J. R. Young and children, are visiting the family of her father, Mr. W. G. Anderson.

The genius of Garrard's people is still invincible. Beside our many victories in contests, John Paul Miller, age 17 years, son of Mr. Jno. W. Miller, got a perfect mark in geometry in his examination at Lexington college. The professor said that it was the first mark of the kind that he had given in 20 years' work and he looked over the papers three times attempting to find an error.

Capt. Louis Landram has been appointed as a delegate from the Kentucky Press Association to the annual meeting of the National editorial association to be held in Portland, Oregon, early next month. The appointment is a good one as the captain's whole soul is in the cause and he is fully prepared to hold his own in the profession.

About 20 ladies who are descended from revolutionary ancestors, will meet Mrs. M. C. Sautley at Mrs. M. D. Hughes today, Thursday, for the purpose of taking steps to organize a chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It is quite a distinction to belong to such a society and reflects credit on the ladies for taking a pride in the noble achievements of their ancestors.

There is a dearth of news here and the governor's race is the only subject of conversation. The county convention promises to be lively and the knowing ones claim that Goebel's friends will control the meeting. There is talk of money being used by the friends of two of the candidates, but I have not been fortunate enough to verify the report as nothing has been offered to me and if anyone has been bought he will not tell it. One thing certain-in the family fight-such a course should not be pursued, and harsh expressions are used in the matter, but I would advise all to keep cool and not to say anything that they will have to retract when the time comes to vote for the nominee, which all good democrats, who go to the convention, will do. Many are opposing combinations and the use of money, which should be done, but it still makes much difference whose ox is gored; for this opposition generally comes from those who have no money to use and no chance to form a combination. Let us be consistent and if the methods become too corrupt, let those who oppose them kick out of the harness, nominate a dark horse and elect him. As I am only expected to give the news and draw conclusions, I predict that Goebel will carry the Garrard delegation, although my vote will be counted for Hardin.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

James Bentley, aged 29, and Miss Maggie Adams, 22, were married at Green Adams' yesterday.

William Howell, of Tribune, Ind., is seeking divorce because his wife broke his arm with a club when he came in late and slightly intoxicated.

Mr. Terry Moberly, 23, and Miss Lucy Coffey, 17, are not superstitious. They will be married this morning in the county clerk's office, same as if it wasn't Friday.

The headline over the dispatch telling of a wedding at Lancaster, "Poor Owsley," deserves rank alongside that other headline over the marriage notice of Mr. Lord and Miss Helper - Louisville Times.

Bruce King, a well known young merchant, and Miss Mary Norwood, of Fayette, daughter of Dr. E. M. Norwood, the trotting horse breeder, were married at the home of the bride, who is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Naunerie Campbell Norwood.

The Montgomery, Ala., papers contain glowing accounts of the marriage of Mr. Joseph Paxton Burton to Miss Lillian Richardson, which occurred on the 7th. It was an imposing affair and the young couple is spoken of in the highest terms. A. A. McKinnedy, Jr., was one of the attendants.

Mr. Levi Elder, the popular clerk of W. E. Perkins of Crab Orchard, was married in Louisville Wednesday to Miss Nannie, the pretty daughter of Mr. J. F. Edmiston, of that place. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Weaver at the Fifth Avenue Hotel and after spending a short while in Louisville they returned to their home. Both are splendid young people and the union of such a pair can not prove otherwise than a blessed one. The INTERIOR JOURNAL extends to them its heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

When we speak of the Haver Orndorff wedding as a daisy, we do not do so in a spirit of slang. The decorations were daisies and ferns and the house, rooms and table were beautiful with them. A great crowd gathered at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Orndorff at Livingston Wednesday evening to see their charming daughter, Miss Nellie, married to Mr. W. M. Haver, a worthy and highly respected young L. & N. engineer. The wedding march was played by Miss Henry, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and the scene presented by the handsome groom, his fair young bride and the attendants as Rev. S. M. Rankin said the words that bound them together, was a striking and impressive one. The bride was clad in a beautiful Paris mullin trimmed with Valenciennes lace and ribbons, while the bride's maids, Miss Mary Orndorff and Hattie Haver, of Chicago, Illinois, wore Paris mullin and all looked lovely. The groomsmen were Messrs. Sparks and Hogan. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The ceremony over, congratulations were showered on the happy couple, after which the guests were invited to a sumptuous repast, splendidly prepared and elegantly served. The table was arranged by Mesdames Dillon and Roler and Miss Bentley and was indeed a thing of beauty. Following supper a generally good time was enjoyed and then Mr. and Mrs. Haver left for Louisville to buy their house-keeping outfit for their home at Livingston. Many people were present from a distance and everything went to show in what high esteem the young couple is held. The bridal presents were many and costly. A. N.

Joe Clark, who killed Bill Miller, at Cumberland Gap two years ago, has been captured in Ohio. Miller, it will be remembered, was present when John Dugan killed John C. Colson and was mixed up in that affair.

IN the rush of court day we neglected to mention an old friend and patron, Squire Jack Walls, of Parksville, who is a candidate for the democratic nomination for judge of Boyle county. He is a true democrat, well qualified for the position and we hope he will realize his ambition. He certainly would if his Lincoln county friends could deaden over the line.

MRS. LIONEL PRESCOTT was on Wednesday's train en route to Rockcastle Springs from a visit to her old home in Wisconsin. She tells us that she was in a short distance of New Richmond, when the cyclone came and wiped it nearly out of existence. Two churches only are left of the thriving town and hundreds of its citizens are either dead or injured.

SELLING 'EM.—Frank Holtzclaw tells us that he has sold three carloads of Osborne binders, mowers, &c, and is not near through.

MACK HUFFMAN, as executor of David Givens, sold to James C. Florence his house and lot near the bridge on the Cut-off pike for $301.

THE court of appeals reversed the Lincoln circuit court in the case of Stewart's administrators vs. Carneal on original and cross appeal.

THE Macabee lodge here has 70 members.—W. C. Shanks running the number up to that point. It is otherwise in a most healthy condition.

GOEBEL men, our last request is for you to be on hand tomorrow. We've got 'em if you come. It will do no good to be for Goebel and stay at home tomorrow.

A SUMMIT of the Hardin men admit that it was a mistake to bring Harding here, and everyone who has spoken of the matter adds that he came against their protest.

ARM BROKEN.—Mary, six-year-old daughter of Mrs. William Gooch, fell while playing the other day and broke her arm near the elbow. Dr. O'Bannon was called and set the broken member.

THE Belle of Lincoln Lodge, G. U. O. E. F., will celebrate its 18th anniversary at Turnersville, July 8th, with speaking, music, feasting and ball playing. Write R. R. Bright, secretary, for particulars.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to Louisville from here at $1.10 Tuesday and Wednesday next, good returning 21th, on account of the democratic State convention and to the L. A. W. meet at Richmond 18 and 19th, limited to 22nd at $1.40 for round trip. Hycleys checked free.

WHEW!—Over 200 reserved seats sold to the eloquent contest at the opera house tonight and still the people are crowding to Meltober's to secure tickets! The fellow who said that interest in these entertainments was on the wane, didn't know whereof he affirmed. The house will be packed to the walls.

THE court appeals affirmed with damages the judgment of the Lincoln circuit court in the case of the L. & N. railroad against C. M. Adams' administrator. Adams was killed while in the employ of the company at Stanford. His administrator received judgment for $5,000. The deceased was a son of J. W. Adams.

11 TO 4.—The champions won again Tuesday afternoon when they defeated the McKinney ball club 11 to 4 on the latter's grounds. Geer and Florence composed the battery for our team and Reynolds and Johnson for the McKinneys. Our boys did not take a strong team and it's no telling what the score would have been had they had their best players.

CHICKEN feed wheat for sale cheap. J. H. Baughman & Co.

LOST.—White silk crocheted baby bonnet. Leave at B. K. Wearon & Son's.

ASBESTOS Sad Irons; something new, at Higgins & McKinney's.

WILL continue our cut on pictures this week and next. Miss Sacray, photographer.

THE late Wm. Gooch left no will and his wife, Lilburn and W. G. Gooch qualified as administrators before Judge Bailey Wednesday.

PEN. DOCS.—The ex-congressman is receiving a car-load of patent office and other reports to give to his constituents. Already 183 mail sacks full have arrived.

STANFORD'S clever postmaster, J. C. Florence, has had his salary raised $100. Danville, London, Lawrenceburg, Richmond and others get the same raise. Pineville gets a decrease of $100.

THE Danville Cycle Club will give a 13-mile handicap road race June 22. The run will be over the Hustonville, Lincoln, Boyle and Stanford pikes. There will be four prizes aggregating in value $55. Call at this office for entry blanks.

E. H. BEAZLEY, who is never better satisfied than when doing good, is soliciting subscriptions to a fund to place a monument over the grave of Eld. John Bell Gibson in Buffalo cemetery. We are glad to say that he is meeting with good success.

DR. R. L. DAVIDSON tells us that this county will not hold its convention till next court day to send delegates to the republican State convention. He says the report that he is to run for the Legislature is unfounded as he would not have the office under any circumstances. "The winner will be named later," he added through his hat.

THE rain interfered greatly with the decoration of the graves of the Odd Fellows by the brethren Tuesday, but the occasion was very pleasantly observed. After a sermon by Rev. S. M. Rankin and a well rendered solo by Miss Lizzie Sannelley, of Louisville, the Odd Fellows, with a wagon load of flowers marched to the cemetery and strewed them on the graves of their loved ones. Hon. R. H. Tomlinson, of Lancaster, delivered a fine address and a number of the best singers in town lent melody to the occasion, which the Odd Fellows honor themselves by observing.

CIRCUIT COURT.—W. H. Traylor and E. Bremer were tried for furnishing minors liquor. The former was fined $50 and the latter acquitted. John Payne for assaulting Peter Cornmney was fined $25 and James Kennedy for shooting and cursing on the public highway $15. Henry Gilpin and Albert Hampton, for breaking into Underwood's barn and stealing hemp, were given one year in the penitentiary each. John Smith, the Negro who barely escaped a heavy sentence for killing Goulma Nelson in a fight with Hill Lewis, got one year for cutting Tom Kennedy. The indictment against B. P. Martin for obstructing a passway was quashed. John Porter, who stole a hog plead guilty to petit larceny and was given 30 days in jail.

George L. Penny was reappointed trustee of the jury fund and qualified with Judge Alcorn as security.

The petit jury was discharged yesterday morning till Monday, but the grand jury will take cognizance of crimes and misdemeanors today.

McCLARY.—In Garrard county, near old Paint Lick church, 85 years ago Jan. 22, last, Joseph R. McClary entered upon a life which proved that the noblest work of God is an honest man and made the world in which he moved better for it. Tuesday afternoon, at his home, presided over by his daughter, Miss Lillie, he passed to his reward. Mr. McClary married Miss Rebecca J. Samuel, and moving to this county, has lived here ever since. He raised an excellent family of six children, all living except the lamented W. F. McClary, who died in the zenith of his usefulness. The survivors are Mrs. Mattie J. Neelus, Mrs. Nannie C. Hlatt, A. N. and J. C. McClary and Miss Lillie W. McClary, and they show the influence of his effort to raise them in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. In early life Mr. McClary united with the Baptist church and during his long life lived so that when the summons should come he would be ready. He served the Baptist church here as deacon for half a century and until infirmities came upon him there was no more regular attendant upon the church of God. He was also a Mason and all who have sat with him in the lodge know what a bright, earnest and faithful one he was. For over 60 years he wore the lamb-skin and held every office in his lodge from tiler to master. Yesterday members of his lodge accompanied the remains to the cemetery and Dr. Shelton made appropriate remarks. A crowd was present to pay the last tribute of respect to the honored citizen, faithful christian and devoted father and friend, who sleeps again by the side of his wife, with whom he had lived the most of his life and who preceded him to the better land only four years ago.

THE mercury was down to 65 this morning, making it real chilly after the hot wave.

BASE BALL.—Probably the last game of the season will be played here Tuesday afternoon, when the champions will do a plenty to the Harrodsburg team.

THE Richmond Clinax says that the admirable likeness of Admiral Dewey and a dog's head carved by H. F. Rout, of Stanford, would have won the prize at the Ladies' Fair had anything but Madison products been eligible.

THE Hardin people have thrown up the sponge apparently, but it won't do to trust to indications. They are on the still hunt and up to any kind of schemes. Do not let their lethargy fool you. Take nothing for granted. Believe nothing you hear and little you see, and whatever you do don't fall to be here to be counted for Goebel.

SOME 20 or more couples enjoyed a delightful party at Mr. and Mrs. Will Severance's Wednesday night in honor of Miss Elizabeth Pickett, Sam Severance and John Shanks. Elegant refreshments were served and everything done to add to the pleasure of the guests, who speak in highest terms of the entertainment.

THE Stone men are in considerable evidence in this county. In fact they are next to the Goebel men in numbers. They can not carry the county themselves, but they can make by coming in and helping us carry it. All Goebel men are favorable to Stone as second choice and it may be possible that the favor may count. There is nothing common between Stone and Hardin.

WE unintentionally gave the Louisville Store a big run on calico and Manager Rauey and his clerks are pretty well worn out disposing of that staple and making explanations. The printer made the advertisement read "1,000 yards of fancy calico at 2c," when the price should have been 3c. There were scores of calls for the article at that very low price before the ink had dried on our Tuesday's edition. As Manager T. D. Rauey well knows, it pays to advertise when you use the right medium.

HATS OFF.—The managers of the contest as well as the opera house management would be glad if the ladies would remove their hats at the contest tonight. Seeing is almost as essential to the pleasure of an elocutionary contest as hearing and when the stylish big hat is worn, many are deprived of seeing the fair contestants. They also desire us to request that the audience be seated by 8:15, when the curtain will rise and the doors be closed till the first lady is through.

AN effort to continue the mail route from McKinney to Turnersville on to Stanford will be made. Postmaster J. C. Florence endorses the movement and everyone recognizes that such a connection with the Cincinnati Southern is necessary for the dispatch of mail matter for the West End of this county and the South. It now takes three days for a letter to go to McKinney or Hustonville and have the answer returned, whereas under the proposed arrangement it could be put through in a day. The mail could leave here about 10 A. M., connecting with C. S. trains North and South and returning here in the afternoon. Petitions to the postoffice are being prepared and the scheme will be pushed.

A squad of surveyors are at Burgin for the purpose of making a survey from that place to Jellico, Tenn. They were sent by the Southern railway, who anticipate extending their line from Burgin to Jellico.

John Wallwork, book-keeper for the Union National Bank at Louisville, has defaulted for $4,000 and skipped.

C. L. Dawes bought near Euhanks a bunch of sheep at $2.50, some calves at $10 to $16 and a cow and calf for $10.

The Central Record reports sales of old wheat at 70c, corn at $1.50 and fat hogs at 11c.

George Kratz made a new record at Latonia by running 64 furlongs in 1:21.
